Instructor/Coach Responsibilities and Agreement

Instructors and coaches may participate only in teaching, training, and coaching during practices and competitions. They may not compete as club members or participate in club administration, leadership, or decision-making activities.

If an instructor or coach's conduct becomes a concern, the Club Sports Coordinator may meet with the individual to discuss the matter. Following this review, Recreational Services reserves the right to remove the instructor or coach from their position.

Instructors and coaches are strongly encouraged to obtain their own liability insurance, as the University of New Mexico does not provide coverage or assistance in this area.

Instructors and coaches may not pay fees or expenses on behalf of a club unless a written agreement confirms that the contribution is voluntary, designated for a specific purpose, properly documented with receipts or invoices, and made without any expectation of reimbursement. Club Sports does not permit loans, advances, or other financial obligations from individuals or organizations. Any funds received from outside sources will be treated as donations.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read, understand, and agree to comply with all University of New Mexico Club Sports Program policies and procedures applicable to instructors and coaches. These terms may be amended with the approval of the instructor/coach, the sport club president, and a Recreational Services designee. I further agree that my electronic signature has the same legal effect as my handwritten signature for purposes of this agreement.
